REMOTE STORAGE

OFFICE OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2, 1904.

Order No. 541.

Chapter 2, Title III, of the Postal Laws and Regulations is hereby amended by the addition of the following subdivision:

V.—READING MATTER FOR THE BLIND.

SEC 518½. Books, pamphlets and other reading matter in raised characters for the use of the blind, whether prepared by hand or printed, in single volumes, not exceeding ten pounds in weight, or in packages not exceeding four pounds in weight and containing no advertising or other matter whatever, unsealed, and when sent by public institutions for the blind or by any public libraries, as a loan to blind readers, or when returned by the latter to such institutions or public libraries, shall be transmitted in the United States mails free of postage, and under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (Act of April 27, 1904.)

2. Reading matter in raised characters for the use of the blind, to be entitled to transmission in the mails free of postage must not contain any advertising or other matter whatever, and must in every case be sent by or returned to a public library or public institution for the blind.

3. When mailed by a public library or public institution for the blind, the matter must be sent as a loan to a blind reader. When mailed for return to a public library or public institution for the blind, the sender must be a blind reader.

4. The matter must be wrapped so that it may be easily examined.

5. No package is to weigh more than four pounds, except in case of a single volume, and it must not exceed ten pounds in weight.

6. On the upper left-hand corner of the envelope or wrapper containing the matter the name and address of the sender must appear, and on the upper right-hand corner the word "Free" over the words "Reading Matter for the Blind."

H. C. PAYNE, Postmaster General.

NOTE.—Letters written in point print or raised characters used by the blind are not included in the reading matter entitled, under the provisions of this section, to free transmission in the mails. (See section 475.)

RULES FOR USE OF BOOKS.

---

1. All blind residents of Kansas, and all persons of defective sight, are entitled to the privileges of this library.

2. Books are sent free of postage when marked "Free Reading Matter for the Blind."

3. Good care must be taken of all books borrowed.

4. Books should be returned to the library within thirty days.

5. Readers requesting books will please send list of at least three books desired. In case first choice is not available, one of the others will be sent. Not more than two single-volume books will be sent at once, nor more than three volumes of one set.

6. Late fiction should be read, if possible, during the summer vacation.

7. Books should be returned promptly. Failure to do this will forfeit use of library for succeeding three months. An extension may be granted by sending written request to the Librarian.
